Neutrality Pact

Nonaggression Pact.

17. Type of alliance as coded in COW data (if applicable): Neutrality/Nonaggression Pact.

18. Describe the obligations of the alliance partners.

In case of war or military action between one of the parties and a third or several other powers, the other party binds itself to observe neutrality with respect to the first (Art.1).

Each of the parties binds itself to abstain from all attack upon the other, and not to take such steps on its own territory as might inflict upon the other party political or military injury.

19. Are any of the obligations contingent upon any of the following: specific adversary, specific location, specific ongoing conflict, number of adversaries, noncompliance with a specific demand, attack, nonprovocation of enemy, or prior agreement among partners? (List all that apply)

No.

20. Describe the nature of the limits to obligations listed in #19.

N/A.

21. Are there any additional provisions for assistance in the event of war? (e.g., promise not to participate in economic sanctions against partner, promise not to aid internal or external enemies, etc.) (Yes, No) If Yes, describe.

Each party binds itself not to take part (...) in any boycott or policy or encirclement, of a financial or economic nature, which might be directed against the other party. Moreover, in case the attitude of a third power or of third powers with respect to one of the two parties should be hostile to its endeavors, the other party binds itself not only to refrain from supporting such a line of conduct, but to oppose on its own territory the contemplated procedure as well as the hostile actions and designs (Art.2).

The parties will in no manner participate or cooperate in any action by a third or several powers which might take steps or intervene against the other party. The parties will not permit, and will forbid to operate on their territory, the organization and activity or groups, and likewise the activities of individuals, which would be prejudicial to the other party or which would aim to overthrow the state system of the latter, undertake against the integrity of its territory, or carry out the assembling or raising of armed forces against the other party. In like manner the two parties will not allow, nor will they grant permission for, the passage through their territory of armed forces, arms, firearms and ammunition and every sort of supplies of military materials which might be directed against the other party (Art.3)
